HOW TO DEPOSIT

You can easily fund your account by using the deposit option from your dashboard, a payment gateway channel is opened up and you're expected to follow the process selecting your preferred payment option (Crypto currencies of choice or other payment methods available) after which you put in the amount you want to deposit.

A personalized payment instruction is automatically provided to you and you are expected to make the deposit to the Payment details generated automatically after which you have an option to upload both a proof of payment which is mostly a photographic document and/or Transaction hash (mostly for crypto currency transactions)

The support team immediately reviews your payment request and your account is immediately credited with the appropriate amount you funded.

These funds credited will be fully displayed in your wallet section of your dashboard which can act as a holding wallet for your crypto currencies too.

To start trading and earning daily profits, you need to move your funds in your wallet into any of the investment plans of choice, noting the maximum and minimum investment amount for each of the available investment packages from your dashboard to start

It's an easy procedure with the step by step process visible on your user dashboard.

Kindly ensure you keep your login details secured.

HOW TO WITHDRAW

Blitz (Withdrawal) Mode

Withdrawals are fully automated here and profits earned weekly are sent directly into the Receive wallet address (Payment details for non-crypto currency transactions) provided to us during the course of setting up your personal profile as an investor with the company. These weekly profits earned are sent to all eligible investors automatically at the end of every weekly trading activity until your investment duration is over after which you can start up a new investment plan at or move into a totally new trading package at will.

Contract Mode

For contract accounts, weekly withdrawals are not eligible, accounts are expected to run their full investment duration earning on a compounded profits pattern until your investment duration has come to an end, the compounded balance earned at the end can be pulled out (less service commission) bringing that investment cycle to an end giving you an opportunity to enroll into any other investment plan of choice.

Kindly ensure you keep your login details secured.

COMPOUNDING

All investments can be terminated at any time as long as service charge is paid in full. Investments can also be compounded or left to run normal. Compounding investment mode explains the scenario where your weekly balance is added to your total balance at the end of every trading week.

For instance, if you start with a capital of $500, and you make a weekly profit of $25 (5% of your trading capital) from the first week, the second week would see your trading capital start at $525 and you then have your 5% profit percentage of $525 ($26.25) added to your new balance for the second week and the same applies for subsequent weeks.

BONUSES

Referral bonuses

5% referral bonuses from direct referrals

Multiple referral system for company affiliates earning from 3 levels, 5%, 3% and 2% respectively.

Testimonial Bonuses

Make a video of a successful withdrawal, and how you feel about the company.

Post on YouTube and send the link to the team. We will review and you get credited $50 for every testimonial bonus which can be fully accessed after two weeks of being credited.

Make sure you are very audible and clear so your video can pass and your bonus credited immediately

Service Commission

Service commission is a term used to represent 30% of the total compounded balance only applied to contract accounts (Blitz investment mode has no service charge involved)

This is also referred to as Traders commission as its part of the company's revenue and commission for the portfolio manager (trader) managing the Contract account.

It's usually deducted from your total compounded balance once your investment is over, making available rest of the funds for total withdrawal through any of our payment channel of choice with the crypto currency option being the preferred method.

Capital insurance

This is an investment concept we utilize at Phoenix Finance Limited acting as a fail-safe protection mechanism shielding our investors from the uncertainties and unforeseen risk involved in all spheres of investment and with the Digital investment processes (which forms a huge percentage of the company's assets generating revenue) presenting with a high level of volatility it's paramount to put practical solutions incase of any investment crisis (like a total market crash).

The company is liable to pay back investors at least 45% of their trading balance if things ever go south, resulting in a total market crash to zero.

A huge percentage (30%) of our company's Reserve funds are stored in flats to offer the platform the capital insurance security we need to function fully without fear of disappointing our investment community.

We all know crypto currencies are here to stay and things would likely never get to that extent but taking extra precautions is what we do as a global financial powerhouse, and there is no wrong in being too cautious in life.

That's probably why we've gained so much trust globally, gone this far and achieved so much since we kicked off in 2019.

Reserves

These are funds set aside by the company to meet up future unexpected financial obligations. They are mostly accumulated from excesses made from trades after total operational costs have been deducted.

10% of weekly excesses from trades and 5% of total service commission charges are moved into the Company Reserve service as a huge operational insurance to our Sustainability.

INVESTMENT

An investment is an asset acquired with the sole goal of generating income or appreciation (an increase of the value of the asset overtime).

There are lots of global Investment processes; with the word being a broad Economy Concept. Phoenix Finance Limited is centered and specialize on digital investment exercise comprising of

A Crypto currency trading

B Forex

C Stock

D Commodities.

A) Crypto Currency Trading

This is the act of carefully analyzing the crypto market movement.

Here at Phoenix Finance Limited, we have perfected the act of analyzing the direction in which the markers tilts, and with a Hedge fund financial prowess, seasoned professional day traders, it's easier to manipulate the market thereby appreciating your investment.

B) Forex Trading

This is also known as Foreign Exchange Market. This is a global decentralized or over-the-counter market for the trading of currencies.

Forex trading always involves selling one currency in order to buy another, which is why it is quoted in pairs. The price of a forex pair is how much one unit of the base currency is worth in the quote currency. ... Less frequently traded, these often feature major currencies against each other instead of the US dollar. C.)

Stock Trading

Stock trading is a form of investing that prioritizes short-term profits over long-term gains. ... Stock trading involves buying and selling shares in companies in an effort to make money on daily changes in price.

D.) Commodities Trading

Commodity market is a marketplace for buying, selling, and trading raw materials or primary products. Commodities are often split into two broad categories: hard and soft commodities. Hard commodities include natural resources that must be mined or extracted—such as gold, rubber, and Oil. We are only focused on hard commodities and will limit our discussion to it.
